5 Beloved, thou doest faithfully whatsoever thou doest to the brethren, and to strangers;
6 Which have borne witness of thy charity before the church: whom if thou bring forward on their journey after a godly sort, thou shalt do well:
7 Because that for his name's sake they went forth, taking nothing of the Gentiles.
8 We therefore ought to receive such, that we might be fellowhelpers to the truth.
9 I wrote unto the church: but Diotrephes, who loveth to have the preeminence among them, receiveth us not.
10 Wherefore, if I come, I will remember his deeds which he doeth, prating against us with malicious words: and not con-

JUDE. Acts of the Apostates

"The Saints' security against apostasy"

He exhorteth them to constancy in the faith.
4 seeing false teachers are crept in to seduce them: for whom a terrible punishment is prepared.
5 JUDE, the servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ, and called:
6 Mercy unto you, and peace, and love, be multiplied.
7 Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.
8 For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ.

5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed them that believed not.
6 And the angels, which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day.
7 Even as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.
8 Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and speak evil of dignities.

 10 But <sup>d</sup>these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally, as brute beasts, <sup>e</sup>in those things <sup>f</sup>they corrupt themselves.

11 Woe unto them! for they have gone in the way of <sup>g</sup>Cain, and ran greedily after the error of <sup>h</sup>Balaam for reward, and <sup>i</sup>perished in the gainsaying of Core.

12 These are spots in your feasts of charity, <sup>j</sup>when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: <sup>k</sup>clouds they are without water, <sup>l</sup>carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, <sup>m</sup>twice dead, plucked up by the roots;

13 <sup>n</sup>Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, <sup>o</sup>to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever.
